A NOTE ABOUT THE BEST PROVISIONERS WE WORK WITH

Great pub food starts with great ingredients. That's why we work with Walter Rose & Son, a fifth generation family butcher in Devizes and La Chasse, who have supplied game and venison for more than 30 years; Creedy Carver's free range Devon ducks and Brue Valley's hand churned Somerset butter.

They know their craft, they care about what they do, and quite simply, they supply some of the best produce we've come across.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Fleur de Lys stands at the heart of Cranborne, a village steeped in history on the edge of the ancient Cranborne Chase, once one of England's great medieval hunting grounds and a royal estate. Parts of the pub date back to the 16th and 17th centuries, and its name, meaning "flower of the lily," reflects centuries of heraldic and royal tradition.

The Fleur also has a literary claim to fame — Thomas Hardy knew Cranborne well and drew inspiration from it for his novel Tess of the d'Urbervilles. In Hardy's fictional "Wessex," Cranborne appears as "Chaseborough," and the Fleur de Lys becomes the "Flower-de-Luce Inn". Hardy's characters meet here on their way through the Chase, giving the pub a place in English literary history as well as local memory.

Pubs today are closing every day and the reason they shouldn't is because they are as much a celebration of important local history as they are places for respite, connection, and purpose.

You being here makes pub closures less likely. So thank you.
